DEPARTMENT OF WORKS.

DELTA ELECTORAL DISTRICT.

ALDERGROVE-BELLINGHAM HIGHWAY, FROM INTERNATIONAL BOUNDARY TO THE YALE ROAD VIA HOWES ROAD.

NOTICE is given, pursuant to section 8 (2) of the "Highway Act" (chapter 24 of the Statutes of 1930 as amended), that the notice dated October 29th, 1931, and published on page 2340 of the Gazette of that date, is hereby amended, for the purpose of more correctly setting forth the direction and extent of the said highway in accordance with the location of same as actually constructed, as follows:—

(1.) By striking out, in said notice, the words "varying in width from 100 feet to 300 feet," and by substituting therefor the words "having a general width of 100 feet, except where a less width and except where a width beyond 100 feet, necessary to secure the efficient construction, maintenance, or use of the highway, are shown on plan hereinafter referred to."

(2.) By striking out, in said notice, all of the description of the said highway, and by substituting therefor the following description, namely:—

"All those portions of Sections 1, 12, 13, and 24 of Township 10, E.C.M., and Sections 6, 7, 18, and 19, Township 13, E.C.M., shown outlined in red on plan prepared by C. F. Wootton, B.C.L.S., deposited in the Land Registry Office, New Westminster, B.C., on the 29th day of July, 1936, and there numbered 5766, and also all those portions of said sections which lie adjacent thereto and within 50 feet of the township line between said townships and between the south boundary of the Trans-Canada Highway (3R) and a straight line running south-easterly from the most southerly corner of the 0.24-acre portion of the South Half of the North-east Quarter of said Section 1 to the most westerly corner of the 3.19-acre portion of the North-west Quarter of said Section 6, all as shown on said plan No. 5766."

(3.) By adding to said notice the following:—

"The said highway commences at the southerly boundary of the Trans-Canada Highway (3R) in Section 24, Township 10, and Section 19, Township 13, E.C.M., from which point it proceeds in a southerly direction through Sections 24, 13, 12, and 1, Township 10, and Sections 19, 18, 7, and 6, Township 13, for a total distance of 17,109.66 feet, more or less, the centre line of this portion of the highway being the township line between said Townships 10 and 13 respectively, to a point on said township line 1,524.48 feet south of the north-west corner of Section 6, Township 13, the width of this portion of the highway being 50 feet on either side of the said township line, except in portions of the North-west Quarter of Section 6, Township 13, and the North-east Quarter of Section 1, Township 10, where a greater width is provided, as shown on plan referred to; thence the highway proceeds through the North-east Quarter of Section 1, Township 10, and the North-west Quarter and the South-west Quarter of Section 6, Township 13, in a southeasterly and southerly direction for a distance of 4,237.75 feet, more or less, to the International Boundary near Monument No. 19A, this portion of the highway having varying widths as shown on said Plan 3540. The total length of the said highway is 4.04 miles, more or less. A copy of said Plan 3540 is deposited in the Provincial Department of Public Works at Victoria, B.C., under 'Road Surveys No. 1927-5.'"

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill:
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

473-myl W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To carry on business as timber and lumber merchants, sawmill and shingle-mill proprietors and operators, loggers, lumbermen, and lumber merchants in all or any of their branches, and to buy, sell, log, prepare for market, manipulate, manufacture, import, export, and deal in timber, sawlogs, shingle-bolts, lumber, wood, and forest produce of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in any by-product of wood or of the forest, and in articles and products of all kinds in the manufacture of which timber or wood is used or forms any part, and to buy, clear, plant, and work timber estates:

(b.) To carry on business as warehousemen, general merchants, store and hotel keepers, coal and fuel merchants, and any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to render profitable or enhance the value of the Company's property or rights for the time being:

(c.) To take or acquire by purchase or otherwise, and obtain options over, and to construct, alter, improve, operate, control, manage, and deal in and with:—

(1.) Mills, mill machinery and plant, machine-shops, factories, works, logging camps, logging machinery and appliances and equipment of every description for the cutting, transportation, handling, manufacture, logging, and finishing of logs, timber, lumber, shingles, and other forest produce, and of any manufacture of wood or of pulp-wood or paper, or of wood and any other materials severally or in combination, and of all products or by-products of wood or other forest produce, or other materials whatsoever:

(2.) Warehouses, stores, shops, sheds, yards, offices, hotels, boarding-houses, restaurants, workmen's houses, dwellings, camps, and structures of every description:

(d.) To obtain options over, and take or acquire by purchase, lease, grant, licence, exchange, or otherwise howsoever, and either to hold or with a view to resale, timber lands, timber licences, timber limits and leases, claims, berths, pulp licences or leases, resin licences, or any licences or permit relating to any product or by-product of the forest, concessions, booming-grounds, rights-of-way, driving rights, water-powers, water lots, and other easements, rights, privileges, and property whatsoever, whether real or personal, or any estate or interest therein, which may be required or be considered convenient for any purpose of the Company or in connection with any business carried on by it, or which may be considered desirable of acquisition by the Company:

(e.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise any real estate or leasehold property or any interest therein, with or without houses or other buildings and erections thereon, in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere:

(f.) To pay for any property acquired by the Company either wholly in cash or partly in cash and partly in fully paid shares of the Company, or wholly in fully paid shares of the Company, or to give any other security for the payment or part payment of any property so acquired which may be agreed upon between the vendor of such property and the Company:

(g.) To invest and deal with any of the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as from time to time may be determined:

(h.) To improve, alter, manage, work, develop, turn to account, and deal in and with any property, real or personal, acquired by the Company or in which the Company is interested:

(i.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, grant options to purchase, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, bonds, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(j.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(k.) To make, draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, bills of lading, and other negotiable or non-negotiable instruments or obligations:

(l.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business (whether manufacturing or otherwise), property, rights, and liabilities of any company or person carrying on or authorized or intending to carry on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or owning or being entitled to any property which it is considered desirable for this Company to acquire or take any interest in, and to pay therefor wholly or partly in cash or wholly or partly in shares, bonds, or debentures of the Company or otherwise:

(m.) To borrow or raise money, and for the purpose of securing or discharging any such money or any other debt, or any contract of indemnity, or other obligation or liability of or binding upon the Company, to mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company:

(n.) To distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(o.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid either as principals or agents, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority.

The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses, or the objects therein specified, or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

CHANGE OF NAME.

BY THIS DEED, which is intended to be enrolled in the office of the Registrar of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, Department of the Provincial Secretary, Victoria, B.C., I, the undersigned, John Robert Barber, of 3437 Portland Street, Burnaby, B.C., and now or formerly called John Robert Rhodes, a natural-born British subject, do hereby for myself and my children and remote issue absolutely renounce and abandon the use of my said surname of Rhodes, and in lieu thereof assume as from the date hereof the surname of Barber.

And in pursuance of such change of surname as aforesaid I hereby declare that I shall at all times hereafter in all records, deeds, and instruments in writing, and in all actions and proceedings, and in all dealings and transactions, and upon all occasions whatsoever use and sign the said name of Barber as my surname in lieu of the said surname of Rhodes so renounced as aforesaid.

And I hereby authorize and request all persons to designate and address me and my children and remote issue by such assumed surname of Barber only.

In witness whereof I have hereunder signed my Christian name of John Robert Rhodes and my assumed name of John Robert Barber this 15th day of January, 1937.

JOHN ROBERT RHODES.

JOHN ROBERT BARBER.

Signed, sealed, and delivered by the above-named John Robert Rhodes, John Robert Barber, in the presence of F. D. Pratt, 602 Hastings Street West, Vancouver, B.C., Solicitor.
